

Nationwide Mutual Insurance Company

Columbus, Ohio

Nationwide is one of the largest and strongest diversified insurance and financial services organizations in the United States. Prior to working for Nationwide, the nominator received multiple care packages from the company during three separate deployments. This gesture of kindness made such a strong impression that when he returned from the last of these deployments, he immediately applied for a position at Nationwide. The company has a variety of programs for veterans and those currently serving, including a Military Associate Resource Group, which advises management and senior leaders on veteran and military related issues. Nationwide is also committed to hiring Guard and Reserve members and veterans. The company made a commitment to hire 1,000 Service members in 5 years, and exceeded the goal by hiring over 1,500 service members. In the community, Nationwide supports several local charities including Honor Flight and MILVETS of Columbus to help meet veteran needs.
